

Annual play of Vanavani

Vanavani School staged its Annual Play as a part of its Golden Jubilee Celebrations. The play was performed by the Students of middle and high school sections.

The annual play was initiated in the School last year to instigate the interest in drama and theatrical performance among the students. The Play staged this was "the hystorical history of troy", which is a modern remake of the legendary story "trojan war", with a hilarious touch. It was a spectacular show, held at the Central Lecture Theatre of IIT Madras, with special invitees Prof. Shreesh Chaudhary and Prof. Muralidharan of IIT Madras.

The performance had the audience in splits, with Greek Gods portrayed in a contemporary fashion.

It was headed by Sasikala,

Kumud Mishra and Mercy of English Department who steered the Play towards a big hit, guiding the Students in their parts. The Students and Teachers put hard work into the making of it and churned out a Success.

Gemina, Class XI, Jaimithra
Class VIII, Vanavani Mat Hr- Sec
School