Gaja cyclone relief by Adyar residents

Adyar Friends Team – a team of friends led by Veeramani, proprietor of VJ Tailors, Adyar, T.V.T. Danasekaran, Secretary, NGO AMURT, Adyar (Ananda Marga Universal Relief Team) and R. Visvajith Dev collected money and relief materials from friends and parents of IIT Vanavani School and distributed them in 4 villages Kothamanglam, Vannianviduthi, Koozhayankadu and Ariyapatti of Pudukottai District on Nov.21 and 22 immediately after the cyclone.

Second phase of relief works like distributing blankets, mats, from AMURT Global Network is in progress at Pudukottai and volunteers take turns and visit the cyclone hit areas. “The damage created by the cyclone is devastating and many of them don't even have mats to sleep at night. We have obtained permission to prepare food at a government school in Vannianviduthi village and with the help of NGO AMURT, we are distributing lunch and dinner food packets to about 1800 people every day in the affected villages,” says

Veeramani who is still at Pudukottai coordinating relief works along with his wife Seevagamani and children.

Veeramani can be reached at 90943 70889. Danasekaran of AMURT can be reached at 91782 73419.
