

NAVY OFFICERS' VISIT TO VANA VANI

On the 4th of August, Naval officers visited our school. Students from classes X to XII attended the program. The program started with a prayer song. The guests were Commander Paramdeep Singh Soodan and Lieutenant Pallav Jain. The officers gave a short introduction to the Indian navy. They then gave a brief about the history and development of the navy. They also explained the work done by the navy, courses offered in the navy, the different career options, and how one could enroll and join the Indian navy. A video about the Indian Navy was also shown.

“Indian Navy - A Way of Life” was the theme, through which they explained “Life at Sea” and the benefits of being in the navy. They also explained the daily life of a trainee and officer in the navy. They explained how life in the navy is unique with various opportunities and many different experiences.

The officers also shared their personal experiences and talked about the way of life in the navy. Questions asked by students were answered by the officers. All the students interacted with the officers with enthusiasm, and many were motivated to join the Navy by the end of the program.
