

PARENT ORIENTATION PROGRAM

The nursery department had organised an orientation program for its parents on 20th August. Dr. S. Thenmozhi, professor, University of Madras, was the guest speaker for the day.

She highlighted the difference between being firm and strict in parenting and how children learn through observation. She shared some tips on positive parenting and eating habits for kids. On a whole, it was an interactive and insightful session and many parents eagerly clarified their doubts.

