

Students of class 12B (biology stream) had an opportunity to visit gurunank college to watch various display by the students of biotechnology stream on August 17, 2023.

Our students learnt through active involvement and substantive communication with the students of gurunanak college .They showcased various display, chart works and experiments based on biotechnology and made our students to gain knowledge about it