

Eid Al-Adha

Eid Al-Adha, also known as Bakrid, is one of the most significant festivals in the Islamic calendar. Celebrated with immense joy and reverence, it is a time marked by prayer, feasting, and the decoration of homes. On 14th June 2024, the nursery children commemorated this event with a special assembly.

During the assembly, the young children showcased their understanding of Eid Al-Adha by speaking about its importance. They explained how the festival honors the willingness of Prophet Ibrahim to sacrifice his son Ismail as an act of obedience to Allah's command. This story highlights themes of faith, devotion, and sacrifice, which are central to the celebration of Eid Al-Adha.

The children also participated in performing Namaz, the Islamic prayer, demonstrating their grasp of the religious practices associated with the festival. Their earnest participation and heartfelt performances made the event truly memorable.

The assembly was a fabulous event, filled with enthusiasm and sincerity from the little ones. It not only educated them about a significant cultural and religious tradition but also allowed them to actively engage in and celebrate the values and practices of Eid Al-Adha.
