

The Interact Club Orientation was held to introduce new members to the club's mission, vision, activities, and the roles and responsibilities of members. The orientation aimed to foster enthusiasm and commitment among students, provide an understanding of the club's impact, and prepare them for active participation.

The orientation began with a warm welcome from the club's past president, Swati.M. She also introduced the guest of the day, Mr. Sesha Sai by reading his profile. Mr. Sesha Sai, a distinguished speaker and community leader, delivered an inspiring speech. He shared his journey and experiences with Interact Club and Rotary International, emphasizing the importance of empathy. truth. fairness. belonging etc. He encouraged members to think globally, reminding them that Interact is part of a larger international network that connects young people across the world.

The chief guest effectively communicated the values and mission of the Interact Club, setting the stage for a productive and fulfilling year ahead. The secretary, Jhanvishree .D delivered the ' vote of thanks '. The orientation session was a great success, leaving new members motivated and ready to contribute to the clubs' activities.
