

Workshop on Capacity Building for Fostering Climate Resilience.

A day workshop was attended by Ms. Gitanjali Elangovan and Ms. Padmavati. A on 17th February 2024, conducted by Sri Ramachandra Institute of Higher Education and Research.

The workshop covered various topics like Climate Change and Health Impacts- the cost of inaction by Dr. Kalpana Balakrishnan, Dean of Research SRIHER.

Spoke on how healthy life is becoming a major challenge because of Climate change.

They had a quick session by Mr. Chitravina N.Ravikumar, planet symphony for Environment

He gave a new dimension of 3R formula- Roof greening, Rain water harvesting, Renewable energy.

Where he Said " all Mottai madi should become pachai madi". for a better environmental future.

Mr. Daniel Chellappa Eminent Nuclear Scientist gave an alert on " Day Zero" and showed various programmes initiated by Tamilnadu Government to save and restore water resources.

The day was filled with eminent speakers, who gave an insight to school teachers to carry the message to the younger generations.